Picture No.	Name	Description	Number of Bulbs	Price £ per bulb	Total £
1	E. tolumense 'Spindlestone'	Bright early pure yellow flowering Erythronium . It's paired leaves are held distinctively and are bright apple green in colour. A good grower, clump forming.		6.50 each or 3 for £16.50
2	E. 'White Beauty'	Leaves lightly mottled. Good clump forming Erythronium . It has a profusion of creamy white flowers and mottled leaves. It is a quality garden plant that clumps up well. Flowers in April Height: 20-25cm.		3.50 each or 3 for £9.00
3	E. 'Susannah' - see below	Very vigorous tall growing (30-40cm). Fresh bright green large leaves. Flowers citrus yellow. In short supply.		9.95	SOLD OUT
3a	E. 'Harvington Sunshine'	Our own hybrid. Very similar to 'Susannah' above. Flowers citrus yellow, Strong grower.		9.95
4	E. 'Harvington Snowgoose' low stock	This is an outstanding plant. Large white flowers with the most elegant of petals. The leaves are green with distinctive maroon markings. Flowers at their best during the second half of April. Selected by Hugh Nunn. Even better form than 'White Beauty'. Height up to 40cm.		6.50	SOLD OUT
5	E. 'Harvington Wild Salmon'	Pink Erythronium are always commented upon. They have a charm and elegance all of their own. 'Wild Salmon' is a selection by Hugh Nunn - a distinctive plant with graceful salmon pink flowers. It is a robust and strong grower. Flowers a little later in April than most other Erythronium . Height up to 20cm.		5.95	SOLD OUT
6	E. oregonum	Maroon and green mottled leaves set off elegant creamy white flowers with a yellow eye. From British Columbia and Oregon. Flowers from March through April. Up to 30cm tall.		5.95 each or 3 for £15.00
7	E. hendersonii low stock	Lavender purple with white throats with dark purple pencil markings and beautiful dark anthers. Regarded by many Erythronium enthusiasts as one of the most choice. Flowers late March into April. Up to 30cm.		7.50	SOLD OUT
8	E. dens-canis 'Old Aberdeen'	Deep purple/pink flowers with inky blue anthers. Golden brown markings at the base of petals. Bold mottled/spotted leaf markings.		2.99 each or 5 for £9.99
9	E. howellii	Beautifully mottled small leaves with white and yellow flowers. Small in every way, it is a 'bantam' Erythronium !		4.95	SOLD OUT
No image	E. 'Harvington Hybrids' low stock	Delicate pink buds open into cream flowers with pink tinge. Leaves have striking maroon and green markings. A small compact and very pretty Erythronium . A hybrid from E. revolutum x howell		4.95	SOLD OUT
10	E. revolutum 'Knights Hayes Pink'	Originated in the National Trust's lovely woodland garden near Tiverton in Devon. Undoubtedly a form or hybrid of E. revolutum . Produces seeds freely and when it is happy will gently spread itself around. Most plants have beautifully mottled leaves in maroon and green. April flowering up to 35cm.		5.50
11	E. californicum low stock	A taller growing rather late flowering Erythronium . Elegant creamy white flowers over lightly mottled foliage. One of the parent plants of E. 'Harvington Snowgoose' and E. 'White Beauty'		4.95	SOLD OUT
12	E. dens-canis 'Snowflake'	White recurved petals. Very pretty mottled leaf. Pencil markings at base of petals. Russet brown zig-zag pencil markings. Deep blue anthers. 15cm tall.		3.50
13	E. 'Hidcote Beauty hybrids' low stock	Extremely vigorous with bold leaves carrying attractive veining and mottling. Flower stems stand boldly above leaves at height of 25-35cm. Flower colour pale mauve pink. One of the later flowering Erythronium .		9.95	SOLD OUT
14	E. revolutum low stock	Delicate deep pink flowers. This species from Western North America has grace and charm. It has striking flowers and beautifully mottled leaves. In our experience this species is a little less vigorous than E. 'Knights Hayes Pink' and E. 'Harvington Wild Salmon'.		4.95	SOLD OUT
